

GIRLS
CAN PLAY FOOTBALL TOO!

By Kevena-Nicole

CHAPTER 1-1st half

Kevena - Nicole (aka Kevena) was obsessed with football all - she talked about and dreamt about football every day. That's how much Kevena loved football..... and she was very good at it too! But Kevena's parents didn't think football was a very good idea for girls. 'No Kevena' they said. 'Football is only for boys.' Kevena's dream Kevena's dream was to play for the school tournament just like her best friend Jordan, but she never got the chance because the football coach had said 'Only boys are allowed to play on this team'. This made Kevena and Jordan very sad.

CHAPTER 2: Halftime

Kevena was determined to play in the school tournament and continued to ask her parents. 'No' they said. 'Football is only for boys'.

She asked the football coach too, but again he said 'no, only boys are allowed to play football on this team'.

She asked the boys at play time, but they said 'no, only boys play football'.

Kevena and Jordan didn't agree but the answer was still no.

CHAPTER 3 - 2nd half

Kevena could not stop thinking about the tournament.

~~With Jordan~~

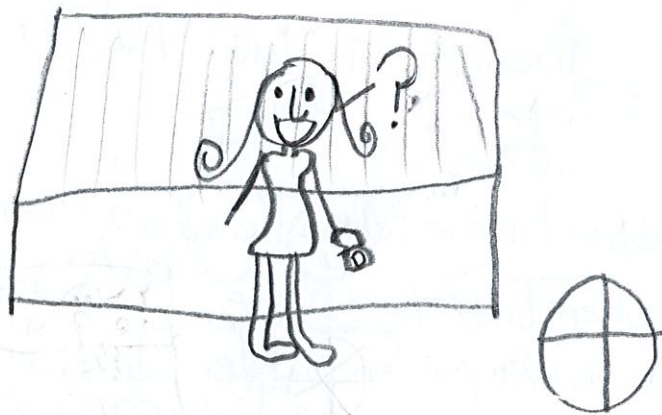

While waiting for her mum to pick her up from school, she noticed a football in the playground.

Kevena just couldn't resist the temptation or let this moment pass her by. This was her big chance!

While everyone was busy talking, she was quickly ran towards the football and began to play. She imagined she was playing on the school team at the tournament with Jordan and the other boys.

She imagined a crowd cheering her name Kev-e-na Kev-ena Kev-e-na. She was finally playing football!

CHAPTER 4: Goal!

Kevena hadn't noticed the football coach watching her. She showed SKilfully showed off all her best moves. The coach was ashtonished. Kevena was good at football! She knew it and now the coach ~~he~~ knew it. He just HAD to put her on the school team.

The coach wasted no time in telling Kevena's teacher. Her teacher told the office. The ~~offi~~ Office sent a letter to her parents. Her parents were supriised and apolgised for doughting her. 'Of course you can be on the team, Kevena' they said.

CHAPTER 5 - Girls can play football

too. Kevena felt so happy and excited. She just had to tell her friend Jordan the good news. Her dream was finally coming true. The news was even published in the school news letter for every one to see! So Kevena practised and practised with the team and got better and better.

The boys thought she was great too. Her family and friends came to watch her play at the school tournament. They were so proud. She played like a professional footballer and even scored the winning goal! Everyone was cheering her name Kevena Kev-ena just like she had imagend. 'Girls can play football too' she shouted, and everyone agreed.

THE END

Kev-ena! Kev-ena! Kevena!

