

No-melt man

It doesn't matter what the temperature is outside. Draw this snowman to make a friend that will never melt away.

1

Draw a large circle. Then draw a smaller circle overlapping the first. Add a curved line across the top circle.

2

Turn the top curved line into an oval. Add a carrot nose and the start of two arms. Use curved lines to start a scarf too.

3

Use curved lines to draw the top of the hat. Add rounded stick fingers to the arms. Then use curved lines to complete the scarf.

4

Add detail lines to the hat, arms and nose. Give the snowman eyes and a mouth. Draw two buttons on his belly. Finish by adding detail lines to the scarf.

Ho ho ho!

On Christmas Eve, Santa spreads Christmas cheer. You can too. Sketch this project to wish everyone a Merry Christmas!

Final

1

Draw a semi-circle with one slanted side. Add small circles to the edges. Add spirals inside the small circles. Draw a candy cane under the sleigh. Connect the cane and sleigh with short double lines.

2

Draw a question mark shape, starting at the right-side spiral and going to the left spiral. Draw a head shape just above the sleigh. Add curved lines from the head to the sleigh and to close up the question mark. Draw another candy cane below the sleigh.

3

Draw a short rectangle arm off the right side of the head and body. Add detail lines to the body to make a belt, jacket and hat. Add a curved line to the top of the sack. Draw a square on the side of the sleigh and a curved detail line.

4

Use scalloped lines to finish the sack, add a pom-pom to the hat and make the hat brim furry. Draw eyebrows, a nose and a moustache. Add a left arm and mitten hand. Add a mitten hand and cuff to the right arm. Draw a belt buckle too.

5

Draw an ear on the left side of the head. Add bits of hair on both sides. Then draw detail lines on the left sleeve.

6

Draw an ear on the right side of the head, and add details to both ears. Draw small circle eyes and a small mouth. Add details to the square. Then write "Merry Christmas" inside it.
