

1 - Letter to the Laureate

Learning Objective:

To discuss and contribute to literary heritage

This is a unique chance to add your voice to the world of books and reading!

In your letter to the new Waterstones Children's Laureate, you could:

- Ask questions about what he will do as laureate to promote reading
- Give your own suggestions about what would help get kids reading
- Let him know which books and authors are your favourite, this will help him to understand how to encourage even more readers
- Let him know your own challenges with reading, the more he knows the more he will be able to help everyone become a reader

Address to BookTrust:

Dear Frank Cottrell-Boyce,

Congratulations on becoming the new Waterstones Children's Laureate! I am writing to ask/tell you about...
