A Rainbow Hunt

By David Lennon

I spotted a rainbow, it was black and white
Have you ever seen such a strange sight?

All the colour was lost, and I had to find
All the hues and the tones, that were left behind

First I found red, on a firetruck (clap, clap)
With ladders and hoses, oh that was luck (clap, clap)

I found colour (Red!)
Lucky I know
But it's perfect for my
Monochrome rainbow, rainbow, rainbow, oh

Next I found orange, it was a setting sun (clap, clap)
The cast that you see, when the day is done (clap, clap)

I found colour (Orange!)
Lucky I know
But it's perfect for my
Monochrome rainbow, rainbow, rainbow, oh

Then I found yellow, on a lemon tree (clap, clap)
And I took a fruit, for my evening tea (clap, clap)

I found colour (Yellow!)
Lucky I know
But it's perfect for my
Monochrome rainbow, rainbow, rainbow, oh

Soon I found green, on a traffic light (clap, clap)
And I'll sit and wait (Go!) till it shines so bright (clap, clap)

I found colour (Green!)
Lucky I know
But it's perfect for my
Monochrome rainbow, rainbow, rainbow, oh

When I saw blue, in the sky up above (clap, clap)
I heard a bird coo, it was a turtle dove (clap, clap)

I found colour (Blue!)
Lucky I know
But it's perfect for my
Monochrome rainbow, rainbow, rainbow, oh

Is this indigo, on a lapis stone (clap, clap)
The most beautiful gem, that my mother did own (clap, clap)

I found colour (Indigo!)
Lucky I know
But it's perfect for my
Monochrome rainbow, rainbow, rainbow, oh

At last, I found violet, in a lavender field (clap, clap)
And I took one flower, in a jar that I sealed (clap, clap)

I found colour (Violet!)
Lucky I know
But it's perfect for my
Monochrome rainbow, rainbow, rainbow, oh

With all the shades found, I'm able to show
A sensational spectrum, in a colour rainbow

I found colour (yay!)
All of them I know
And they're perfect for my
Colourful rainbow
And they're perfect for my
Colourful rainbow
And they're perfect for my
Colourful rainbow (applause)
