

Amser Rhigwm Mawr Cymru Big Welsh Rhyme Time

Farmer Dai and the Mouse that Could Not Rhyme Part 1

By Dai Woolridge

Once upon a time
Animals rhymed
And the best would rhyme against farmer Dai

For miles, animals would trot, hop, gallop and slither
They'd clip and clop just east of the river
To farmer Dai's house

"The Bestest rhyme wins the bestest prize!
You'll win the golden cup, right now it's mine
because my rhymes are sublime!"
Said the farmer called Dai

And so farmer Dai put up signs
So all the animals knew it was time to rhyme...

"Wow" said the birds
Who liked to rhyme words!

"Yessssssss!" Said the snake
Who ate lots of cake

"Count me in!" Said the cat
Who wore a back to front hat

"I'll take the mic!"
Said a hedgehog called spike

All the animals went to rhyme, even waited in line
But a mouse just hid, because he could not rhyme

One by one, animals rhymed...
Everyone had such a fun time

"You CAN all rhyme, but not like me" said Dai
"My rhymes are sublime, THIS prize stays mine!"

But was farmer Dai really the best?
Find out in part two, next...

"Farmer Dai is shedding a tear!"

As tears dropped from Dai's eyes

What came next was the BIGGEST surprise

You CAN rhyme!

Your rhyme was sublime!

It was much, much, better than mine"

"I loved everyone's rhymes

So let's party at my house!"

"Hooray!", everyone cheered

For the rhyming mouse!
