

Bookstart 25th Anniversary Awards

Conditions of Entry

Eligibility

There are different eligibility criteria for each award. These can be found on the nomination form.

We are looking for professionals or organisations who contribute to Bookstart within the areas they work.

The nominations and judging process can be found below.

Nominations and judging process

- Entries should be submitted online, using official entry forms.
- By nominating an individual/organisation for any of the Bookstart 25th Anniversary Awards you confirm to the best of your knowledge that the information is honest and true.
- The nominations should be accompanied with your contact details and name, along with the name of the nominee and their contact details.
- If more information is needed regarding your nomination, we will contact you using the provided details.
- In entering the nomination form, I am giving BookTrust permission to contact me regarding the nomination I have entered.
- We cannot take responsibility for any nominations that are lost, delayed, misdirected or incomplete, or for any entries which cannot be delivered or entered for any technical or other reason.
- If you have a relationship with any BookTrust judge you may still enter, but any conflicts of interest will be flagged up.
- Please note that nominations cannot be returned.

Entries should be submitted by 23.59pm on 30 September 2017

- Following this, nominations will be considered by the panel of judges and a shortlist of candidates will be drawn up.
- Nominees may be contacted to contribute to their nomination to assist judging if it is deemed necessary.

- BookTrust takes the integrity of its awards extremely seriously. Research and fact checks will be carried out on entries.
- The names included in the shortlist will remain strictly confidential.
- Winners for all awards will be informed in October 2017.
- All individuals and organisations shortlisted will be contacted by BookTrust to arrange the presentation of their awards.
- The judges' decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
